Forgotten Books, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Annotated edition. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Complete Works of Edgar Allan Poe, Vol. 16: Marginalia, Eureka The present volume contains an accurate reprint of the original edition of the Eureka together with a collection of Notes from Bishop John F. Hurst's copy of the essay. This copy was once in the possession of Poe, and was annotated by him. The reader is thus made completely conversant with the author's final revision of his famous scientific prose poem, which many consider a remarkable anticipation of Herbert Spencer's Views on evolution. That Poe was at fault in much of his physical as well as meta physical science, none, we suppose, will deny; but it must be remembered that Eureka was composed at a period of great mental and physical anguish, just after the death of his beloved Virginia, and its Birth marks are obvious. One fact seems certain: it has not yet been thoroughly fathomed, explained, or explored; its mysteries, couched in magnificent language, are far from being mere rhetorical rhodomontade.
