Down Out Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Life should have been perfect for Jeremiah Bean. A beautiful wife who wore a Texas Rangers badge, a beautiful baby daughter, a judgeship his for the taking. Instead, his wife and daughter are dead, and his judge s bench has been taken away because of a bit of a problem with the needle. Now Judge Royy Bean II, trying to stay off the radar of law enforcement, quietly-though fully armed and always wearing a bullet-proof vest-handles squabbles between thieves and burglars and other assorted fringe members of society in a dusty compound in far southern Texas. But someone has left a package for him in Barefield: a finger, a note, and a photocopy of a Texas Rangers badge-implying things weren t quite kosher the night his wife, and three of her fellow Rangers, became celebrated heroes. Bean s semi, full of dope-packed coffins, is on fire, cops are searching for him, and he s found fourteen-year-old Faith chained up and hidden inside the cab of the truck. Clearly not what he signed up for. While trying to take Faith home, Bean confronts the Ranger he believed to be long dead and is forced to face his greatest lost treasure. Praise for Death is Not Forever Trey R. Barker just might be the closest successor to Jim Crumley we have. Both hail from Texas and both have written some of the grittiest noir prose on God s damned earth. Death Is Not Forever not only took my breath away, I worked up a good sweat while reading it. -Vincent Zandri, New York Times and USA Today Bestselling author of Everything Burns and Moonlight Weeps Ernest Hemingway described...
