Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Ecotourism is a form of tourism that connects people to their real ecology and environment in a sustainable way without compromising with scarce resources and prevailing ecological conditions from guest to host area. It helps in breeding Affection and Dynamism towards nature, culture, and environment among people. It improves living standard of both host and visitor due to learning and visualization of flora-fauna and natural environment in their real habitat situation and condition respectively and generates consciousness about conservation for getting pleasure, peace and purpose solved. It takes into account present and bothers about future life. The book focuses on the different dimensions of ecotourism for eco-friendly development of tourism in the world. The book is based on extensive research on ecotourism operation and provides information about ecotourism concept, eco-cultural tourism, wildlife tourism, spiritual holiday tourism and rural tourism trends and opportunities in the present globalized tourism market. The book also discusses about importance of Relationship Management for sustainable development and conservation of various ecotourism resources and also deals with marketing techniques. It is prepared to meet with requirements of aspiring and established ecotourism professionals.
