THE ORPHAN S AMISH TEACHER (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Susan King has always had a fascination with the Englischers, much to her parent s disapproval. As a teacher in the Amish schoolhouse, she has found she loves working with more kin. When she stumbles across an orphanage in need of volunteers and meets the handsome Ralph, she finds herself behaving in a way that would make her parents unhappy. She quickly develops feelings for Ralph, but then is stunned to find out he has a girlfriend. A very beautiful and but very unkind girlfriend. Susan tries her best to be considerate and feels all is lost until the girlfriend invites her to her birthday party. Ralph urges her to attend and she finds herself once again sneaking off to be with the Englisch. Will she compromise everything she believes in the pursuit of love? Or will Susan come to terms with where she belongs and trust Gott to bring her love when the timing is right? A charming, clean and wholesome new Amish romance story from Hannah Schrock, full of joy and heartache, but does it have a happy ending?.
