Createspace, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Irish Mythology meets modern ideas of multiple Universes in a humorous adventure. A pre-Celtic artifact transforms into a bracelet and climbs up your arm. And now you can speak any language. And you can travel time-lines . Imagine a Time-line for every possible future and present. When Kate, the eleven-year-old daughter of an American Professor, finds the bracelet, she and her friends are catapulted into the Time-lines . Into a Time-line of modern day sophisticated Raptor dinosaurs that regard humans as gourmet food. And they also walk with modern Pharaohs of Egypt. Conchobar is a run-away teenager from Tir-na- Nogh (Celtic mythological Land of the Young.) He has lost his bracelet to Asil, the daughter of a farmer who is a modern Raptor in his Time-line. Harrington, their Shoggoth (a being who performs a task) is actually a reporter with the prestigious Irish Times. The Jamaican aunt of Kate s friend Lana accidentally uses Obeah magic to make Harrington fall in love with her, and the children have to bring him across the Time-lines to break the spell. He becomes the Oracle in the Chapel of the Hearing Ear in the Time-line of the modern Pharaoh, the ruler of the Western World. The Egyptians think the Raptor Asil, in reality a teenager, is Wepwawet, the jackal God of Abydos, Lord of the Necropolis. The Raptors want to use Conchobar s bracelet to transport the humans across from the Egyptian Time- line to sell them in their Raptor Time- line as gourmet food. They offer to make Conchobar the Pharaoh if he will help them. Kate and her team, aided by policewoman Mary, set out to put a stop to all this.
