SLAVE TO THE FARM (PAPERBACK)

Totalrecall Publications, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Slave To The Farm by Erika Tafel This book has taken me years to write, and now that it is done, I sometimes pick it up and find it hard to believe it s my story. From this vantage point it certainly feels like it happened to someone else in another lifetime. The stories that follow are remembered and re-remembered from decades ago. Time has misted my memories till the edges are no longer sharp, but there are those snapshots, so crystal clear I can still smell the smells, and taste the tastes. I guess those are a big part of why I wanted to write this book in the first place. If I remember them, then others will too. McGill has supplied graduate after graduate to numerous institutions that make up the Quebec juvenile system with Shawbridge (now Batshaw) being one of its oldest juvenile placements. I was shocked when I could only find a grand total of three books about the one hundred year old institution: two of them in the rare book section printed before 1940, and the third one, I d already read, Normal Bad Boys, Public Policies, Institutions, and the Politics of Client Recruitment, written...
