On New Year s Eve 1999, while being interrogated by the police for a murder, David begins an oral quest via confession to help comprehend his crippled married life to his wife Meredith Kilgore - the recipient of a mysterious illness, Meredith s need for deception, and David s eventual need for a psychiatrist and police authorities. David encounters a host of characters and transitional subplots as told in Flashbacks with the different characters (Brian, Brian, Bernard, Harold, Melora, etc.) in his discovery and awakening to internal love in the face of his own marred ego. David s continual hardships are revealed as the plot and multiple story-lines delve into the explanation, cause, and result of David Kilgore interrogation by the authorities. The narrative reveals David s continual mental subjugation to a strong female character named Miana Aames as he works to sustain his internal-self in the face of an ever changing and deadly path to reach enlightenment and LOVE. The story and thematic arcs are out of place, time, and space and will appeal to [All Literate Audiences] .
