AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2004. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Collective Works of the Sweet Tea Poetry Circle (Meredith Aaronson, editor) is a diverse anthology of poems written between 1989 and 2003 by the members of the poetry group the editor founded, poems discussed and honed under the stars during monthly meetings held on the banks of Stillwater Creek. Herein, you will meet the participants as they courageously explore their expressive potential. Buddy Lankford dreams of getting Married on the Moon; Edwina Leuenberger finds solace in A Little Weed; Sharleesa Davis laments the high price of her favorite meal in Sushi Fan; Paige Sanders attempts to heal the emotional wounds left by the Nine-Eleven terrorist attacks in New York 2001; and Zachary Stone leads us on a spiritual journey to the stars in Jerusalem. So, take a moment tonight to survey the constellations. Then pour yourself a glass of iced tea, find a quiet spot to read, and enjoy.
