

Art of Imagination (Paperback)

By Jocelyn Duncan

Bluey-Serperior Publishing House, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Jocelyn Duncan epitomizes the possibilities of a special needs child when parents recognize and nurture their child s talent and potentials. Jocelyn developed a passion for drawing at the age of four, and at the age of eleven, she authored and illustrated her first book, Tember, the White Tiger. In 2002, she won third place in Black Writers On Tour writers competition. Despite being diagnosed with Asperger s Syndrome, which is on the milder end of the Autism Spectrum Disorder, Jocelyn graduated from the Port of Los Angeles Charter High School with a diploma--not a certificate of completion. Jocelyn s parents learned not the hard way, but instead, the easy way of maximizing their child s gift/talent. They did this through their working together, their faith in God and their faith in their child s potential. Not only has their journey delivered a master artist to the world, it has brought hope to all special needs children and their parents. They had no manual to guide them--they mentally wrote it as they experienced living and working with a child with Asperger...

READ ONLINE
[9 MB]

Reviews

This written publication is wonderful. It really is loaded with knowledge and wisdom You will not really feel monotony at at any time of your time (that's what catalogues are for relating to if you ask me).

-- Desmond Becker

Absolutely essential go through publication. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. You will not feel monotony at at any time of the time (that's what catalogues are for regarding if you ask me).

-- Ambrose Thompson II