Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The day my husband was diagnosed with acute myeloid leukemia, my life became a photograph, a distorted picture that I was forced to look at every day. An image that stayed the same, capturing a moment in time, a moment that changed everything. Seasons passed, birthdays and holidays, but the disease remained, hanging on a branch right in front of my face like a rotten piece of fruit I wanted to pick and throw away. As the leukemia corroded my husband s bone marrow, it also poisoned our marriage. Because Mike wasn t what the doctors referred to as symptomatic, I think that worked to his...
