He is an exorcist known for slaughter. Ilanya Respa encounters a supernatural bee. It presents her with the chance to escape her mundane life and become a queen. Can Abel allow his beloved Ilanya to fulfill her paranormal calling, or will death be the only recourse? And when Carmine Lassiter sees the shadow of his inner demon, Abel discovers an unexpected connection to his peer. An act of horrifying violence will force them both to face their greatest mystery, their own natures. If they don't find an answer, a divine power may usher in the apocalypse. Will Carmine be able to understand a god's fire before it consumes them all? In a world where desires and fears can conjure the ghosts of eels and lambs, Recumon's literary stories lace into a lyrical web of the paranormal and the psychological that forms a mosaic of the human condition.
