Self-awareness and self-knowledge in professions
Something we are or a skill we learn

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | Something we are or a skill we learn | The inspiration for conducting this study was an interest in professional and organizational development. Focus in the theses is on professions concerning practices of care, e.g. teachers, nurses and leaders in social work. In this thesis, professional judgment is in focus, which refers to the understanding of complexity and conflicting interests at a workplace; but it can also be encountered in relational issues...
