One would have expected this number to decline. Concerned citizens want answers as to why schools cannot produce children with better reading and thinking skills. Dr.Elaine Impara Ely s book, The ABC s of Making Reading Fun. introduces a comprehensive approach to one of the major problems in education today: Children s inability to master reading because many schools lack clarity on a successful approach to beginning reading. The author incorporates the latest brain based research on how to read supports her Say and See activities as the best way to learn to read. Her unique Say and See method makes it so much easier for parents to have fun assisting their children become independent readers, rather than viewing reading as an academic chore that must be tolerated. This book is a departure from rote practices to a dynamic integration of social, emotional and academic learning. It encourages parents to develop a playful tendency toward reading and assures them it s OK to make learning fun for their children. Readers instantly relate to the vivid and colorful pictures that engage them for hours, arouse curiosity and make reading a satisfying and meaningful...
