

I Write Myself to You: Poems and Writings (Paperback)

By Walter C Huffman

iUniverse, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Walter Huffman believes that we live poetically on earth. Despite the contemporary passion for science and technology people are more deeply motivated by images and fabulations. Stories and myths help us remember who we are and dreams give us vision for the future. Such imaginings are the essence of the poetic spirit. This collection of poems introduces a poet of wide-ranging experience who is able to take poetic pictures of moments great and small in our lives. Using an amalgam of styles and themes, Huffman reflects the diverse influence of poets like T.S. Eliot, e.e. cummings, Robert Frost, and beat poet, Kenneth Patchen. This poetry has a single intent: a piercing look into the heart of things. The collection moves through nature's seasons from Once Upon a Summertime to A Cosmic Christmas to the passion narrative in Vernal Equinox. . The politics of the present day find expression in poems like Katrina and Holy Innocents. And there are whimsical encounters with Sally, the Man and Woman in the Garden and with death.
