Excerpt from The College Greetings, Vol. 17: October, 1913 To the old students it was a glad reunion and to the new a happy, early assembling - our first chapel service. From the opening tones of the organ to the closing prayer, the exercises were very impressive. Dr. Harker spoke briefly of the three main objects before every student. Health, gained by proper exercise; rest, and food; scholarship, through honest, steady work, and faith, which is the greatest and endureth forever. Then in all we must get the idea of service as is suggested in our college motto: Knowledge, Faith, Service. Miss Beebe sang a beautiful arrangement of the story of the Prodigal Son. Our new Dean, Miss Mothershead, was greeted with applause when presented by the President. It was a pleasure to have with us Dr. And Mrs. Pitner, Mrs. Lambert, and Mrs. Brown, and Mrs. Gates, as representatives of the board of trustees and former presidents, and Rev. White and Rev. McCarty from the Methodist churches of the city. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands...
