Curriculum Vitae is a hyper-realistic character study of Ian Sloan, a forty-four-year-old high school English and journalism teacher. A fractured personal life and mundane occupation serves as the big yellow bus that carries the reader into his world. The setting is Anesthesiaan upper middle class, Los Angeles suburb, during Reagans 1980s. One of Ians idealistic journalism students is on the warpath to expose controversy with the district superintendent, which could cause political disaster. Ians ex-wife, now married to a successful tax attorney, suspects their sons recent behavior is drug-induced. His fathers health is deteriorating. And to top it off, a local single mom has ensnared him in an involuntary romance. But Ians existence runs much deeper than his daily schedule and annoyances. Author A. B. Boyd digs deep into his characters emotional liferevealing a desire for reconciliation with his dying father, coupled with an on-and-off relationship with his own son.
