Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Fifth Annual Report of the Board of Education of the City of St. Louis, Mo: For the Year Ending June 30, 1904 Four years ago it was my privilege to submit the annual School Report. It seems fitting now before going further into details to call attention to the general progress made in four years. The progress of a single year often seems small, largely of promises and expectations; but when four consecutive years are taken together, we see more clearly and appreciate more fully what has been accomplished. In my former report, while congratulating the city on the general prosperous condition of the schools, I pointed out as clearly as I could the necessity for several improvements. Let us see what those demands were and how they have been met. I. The demand was made for a larger income - the power to levy a tax of six mills, if necessary, in place of a limit of four mills to the dollar. That power was given by an amendment to the Constitution which...
