Excerpt: . . . appropriation accounts that were not included in the standard rate for operations in the 2009 CR. According to BOP officials, the anomaly in the 2009 CR helped ensure BOP could continue to pay salaries and expenses of the existing staff and costs of the growing inmate population. In any one of the years we studied prior to 2009, CRs only included up to 18 provisions that provided a different amount than what was provided in the standard provisions. However, in 2009 over 30 such provisions were included in the 157-day CR. In some cases, CRs provided full-year appropriations for a program or activity. Under these circumstances, agencies have funding certainty during the CR period. For example, in fiscal year 2009, the CR appropriated an amount to cover the entire year for Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) payments. LIHEAP provides assistance for low-income families in meeting their home energy needs and typically 90 percent of LIHEAP funding is obligated...
