Thousands of worthless books continue to be written about Management theory. So many in fact, that you would suppose that all angles of this fine art have been covered. But they have not. Until now. Astonishingly, what we offer you, the hopeful and impatient Executive, are these essential Managerial techniques, mastery of which will fast track your speedy and pleasurable progress, all seemingly within the accepted norms, standards and rhetoric of the modern workplace. No one need go to their eternal resting place regretting having spent too many hours at the office. with this ground-breaking expose, all future Managers will wish they had spent twice as long there. Such are the promised delights of these leadership tools! Paul Payne, editor of The Power of the Workplace, Wiseape Press, Parkville, 2014.
