Not illustrated. 1878 Excerpt: .the one dollar or ten dollars that we may have given, to see just what sort of fruit it bears; to care less for the name of a child, than that some child is being taught of God through us; in a word, to be satisfied that we are bearing a part, and if our earnest prayers baptize it all, no insignificant part, in what God is now giving His daughters to do. Marvellous events of the year were noted: the fatal blow to Mohammedan power, the death of the Pope, wars and rumors of wars, famine and pestilence, all parts of God s great plan; while in Africa explorers are opening up the land to Christian missions, in Asia obstacles of ages are being removed and wonderful opportunities are everywhere presented for the sowing of gospel seed. This society has now under its care eighty-five missionaries at work in India, China, Japan, Persia, Syria, Africa, South America, Mexico, among our native Indians and the Chinese of California; thus we encircle the world. Fifteen new missionaries have been added during the year, and two have been called to serve the Lord more perfectly in His upper kingdom. School work is each year more hopeful, as the pupils decide for Christ, are numbered with His. followers, and go out voluntarily to teach others the way of life. Our Bible readers and native teachers number 150. There has also been an increase of home force. We have...
