Reviews

This pdf might be well worth a study, and a lot better than other. It really is simplistic but excitement inside the fifty percent in the book. Its been printed in an exceedingly straightforward way which is just after i finished reading this ebook through which really modified me, modify the way i believe.

Subject: Public contracts -- United States -- Evaluation. Excerpt: . . . Temporary Housing Occupancy Extension: In April 2007, FEMA extended the temporary housing assistance program for hurricane victims living in trailers and mobile homes until March 2009. Beginning in March 2008, individuals residing in these units will pay a portion of the cost for rent, which will begin at 50 per month and incrementally increase each month thereafter until the program concludes on March 1, 2009. FEMA also began allowing residents of its mobile homes and travel trailers to purchase their dwellings at a fair and equitable price; however, on August 1, 2007, FEMA temporarily suspended sales while the agency works with health and environmental experts to assess health-related concerns raised by occupants. FEMA wasted as much as 16 million because it did not allocate task FEMAs Issuance of orders under the MD contracts to the companies with the lowest prices. Task Orders under Despite extraordinary pricing differences for the same services among the 14 10 MD contractors, FEMA issued task orders to all 10, spending MD Contracts 48. 2 million from June 2006 through January 2007 on the five contract Resulted in as Much line items that generate the most cost. If FEMA had instead issued task orders to only the five contractors with the lowest overall bid prices, it as 16 Million in would have only spent an estimated 32. 5 million on these five line items. Waste The scope of the work under the MD contracts primarily covered monthly trailer preventative maintenance, emergency repair, and unit deactivation and removal. Further, as stipulated in the contracts, each company receiving an award must be prepared to perform th is work anywhere...
