ADVANTAGE MEDIA GROUP, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Put Fear In Its Place On the night of October 1, 2017, Stephen Paddock smashed the windows out of his thirty-second-floor suite of the Mandalay Bay hotel and opened fire on a large crowd of concertgoers who were attending a country music festival on the Las Vegas strip. Fifty-eight people were killed, and over 450 were wounded in the deadliest mass shooting in United States History. This incident, and so many others like it, demonstrates the significance of having a plan to keep yourself safe in any environment and any situation. Hope in the Darkness features former LAPD police officer and security expert Dana Picore, Ph.D. and her 10-Point Threat Assessment Model, which will help you identify and evaluate potential security threats in both your workplace and social gatherings. You ll learn what warning signs to look out for in employees-- such as substance abuse, a history of violence, or mental illness--and you ll understand when to call for professional assistance. Don t be passive with the safety in any environment, especially your workplace. By taking action today, you can give your coworkers a secure working environment where they have nothing to fear. Dr. Picore poignantly illustrates that the H in hope stands for help. She guides you through real-life crisis and interjects resourceful information to help you through what appears to be a mountain of challenges when faced with a traumatic personal event or potential workplace violence. Her ten-point threat assessment model presents a blueprint of resources that can be applied to almost every crisis. -- Art Lopez, Oxnard, CA, retired Chief of Police; retired Deputy Chief, Los Angeles Police Dr. Dana Picore, a top successful threat assessor and motivational coach, inspires us to shift focus...
