

Whim: In the Beginning (Paperback)

By Andy Close

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Two hundred and fifty years ago the planet Earth was in trouble. Everything that could be dug up had either been burned as fuel, turned into novelty key-rings or eaten . at least once. All this could mean only one thing; it was time to move on. What was needed was a ship. But this was to be no ordinary Ship; this was to be the saviour of mankind. As such it had to have the backing and cooperation of everyone on the planet. It was therefore doomed from day-one. It s the job of The Chairman to steer a course through the figurative minefields to the point where the Ship is launched, but also more importantly to seal his immortal place in history. As a scheming, vindictive, delusional megalomaniac with more mood-swings than a schizophrenic pendulum and a mind that would have given Machiavelli a good shot at the Nobel Prize for Transparency, he s perfect for the job. But dark forces are at work and the Chairman suddenly finds that he s nothing more than a pawn in...
