AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 156 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.4in. It can be said life is a series of coincidences, shaped by chance meetings. What we take out of life and learn from our interaction with others is of our choosing and defines our destiny. A meeting of two people in the most unlikely of settings sets off a chain of events that leads to the writing of Morality, Ethics and Love: A Dialogue. Author Jason Werbics presents an inspiring tale of discovery and renewal based on a relationship forged in a mental health centre between himself and a young woman. Through the mirror of their dialogue and interactions, the book looks at the topics of morality, ethics and love that surfaced in their four-year relationship. Follow the path of one person's need for growth and the other's desire to help. The choices they make help shape their destiny. This book is a result of their relationship, and represents a unique and challenging approach to philosophy. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
