Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Miss Vanessa Mendozzi (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. So you think you that you understand what being British is about? Dear oh dear. I urge you to think again. Little things can betray you, this much I know. For instance: Where do you find Yorkshire puddings? What does I don t disagree mean? See, it s not that easy; I have captured years of experience in this book, and to be truthful I am still learning. Being British is a complex art. Still undecided? You can always take this quick test to check if you are ready. First Question: Do you add the tea before milk or milk before the tea? Now, think of an answer. Response: It doesn t matter. What does matter is that your answer must be more than 100 words long (and preferably longer) and that you make your position in the class system abundantly clear by declaring a preference for one way or the other (milk first = working class, milk last = middle class and upwards) Second Question: Your new neighbour is putting his rubbish in front of his house, for the bin collection. He is in his boxers (and nothing else despite the biting cold). You have to walk close to him as you are going to the Tube station. How do you behave? Answer: Just pretend it is totally normal to be outside with almost no clothes on. Make small talk, but from a safe distance. Be polite. Think along the following lines: Hello! It is getting colder, isn t it? Hi! Lovely to finally put a (small pause).face on a name! Don t blush, don t stay silent. Don t make fun of the...
