William Deans, who, as reported in last issue, has been appointed to China, was ordained to the holy ministry at Wilton, Hawick. The Rev. J. Rudge Wilson, M.A., of Wilton, presided; there was a large attendance of the ministers of the Presbytery, and the church was crowded in every part The Convener of the Foreign Mission Committee addressed the young missionary and the people. Mr. Deans is highly recommended, and is believed to be a man who will be a great strength to the Mission. He has had considerable experience in Home Mission work under the Rev. James Anderson of Old Kirk parish, Edinburgh. God willing, he sails on 25th January, before this reaches the reader. The Committee hope to send out also a medical missionary before the end of this year. A work of grace...

Reviews

An extremely wonderful pdf with perfect and lucid information. Better than never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Elenor Koch PhD

This publication will be worth purchasing. It is written in straightforward words and not hard to understand. I am just very happy to explain how here is the best ebook we have read in my own lifestyle and might be the best publication for at any time.
