BRAZIL BODY SOUL - BRASIL CORPO ALMA

HANDS OF CARE PHOTOGRAPHY. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 60 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 8.0in. x 0.2in. Identity. . . From ancient times, along with their hair styles, fashion and design, the African tribes have been identified by a wide range of headwraps we often call turbans. On the African continent the color and the manner of tying of a turban might mean a particular tribe or ethnic group, or make a statement about the identity and status of the individual. In some parts of the diaspora these traditions have been erased with time, yet in a few places in the world people of African lineage continue to keep them alive. The women of Brazil, in the vibrant daily street life, the cultural festivals, Carnival and religious manifestations, are seen embellishing their unique beauty with headscarves, wraps and turbans of every description. This work comes to prove, with loving attention to detail, the breathtaking variety and level of differentiation from one turban to another, which represent the true identity and values of the African groups and tribes they inherit. Like the DNA of our ancestors, these unique ways of wrapping fabric to adorn the head preserve and keep alive today the memories and cultural values passed down to us. Brazil in Bloom. . . The women in their colorful headwraps bring the Brazilian landscape alive like a field of flowers in bloom. In this land of magic, all the colors of the rainbow have a meaning, representing the Orixs and all that they evoke, and also symbolizing all the people that weave together into a community and a nation. The tradition is, no matter what your faith, we all can get along. Here in Brazil, we are bringing the African ethnic groups, along with all those who lived here before and...
