Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Eighth Annual Report of the College Settlements Association: From October 1, 1896 to October 1, 1897 The kaleidoscopic character of our neighborhood is one of its most striking features. We watch the continual moving away of our friends with mixed feelings. We are sorry to see them go for the sake of the neighborhood, which needs all its good citizens, but for their sakes we are glad. Our young people when they marry go to Brooklyn or to Harlem. There are whole blocks above 12 sth Street given over to young married people, and we hope that their life will be happier under their new conditions. The tenement houses which are being built around us are very large, some of them containing as many as thirty-six families, so that for every family that moves out of our neighborhood there are several that come in, and we are continually making new friends especially among the children. The warm personal friendships which come to us who are privileged to know so many people in such simple straightforward relations seem of more value every year. We are the friends whose sympathy is often sought in the family troubles that are so hard to bear. There is not much that we can do, but in several cases, by steadily remaining friends with the various groups in the same family, we have been of help in reuniting the home circle. Our social work and educational work still go hand in hand. The spirit of the kindergarten, which tries to meet the needs of the child's life at every point, we keep before our eyes as the ideal for both young and old. On Library...
