WAR S NOMADS: A MOBILE RADAR UNIT IN PURSUIT OF ROMMEL DURING THE WESTERN DESERT CAMPAIGN, 1942-3 (HARDBACK)

Casemate Books, United States, 2015. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. War s Nomads is an evocative account of one man s experience of life in a mobile radar unit after the battle of El Alamein as Rommel s AfrikaKorps was relentlessly pursued across the desert through Egypt, Libya and Tunisia by the Eighth Army. It is the only known detailed account in existence of the small radar units who played a key part in the Western Desert Campaign. A budding professional writer and grammar school master, Fred Grice had a keen eye for detail and ear for language, which he assiduously employed after he was called up in 1941, keeping two journals of his experiences. The first, On Draft deals with waiting to embark after initial training, with the journey to the battle zone, and the privations of a low-ranking AC. Daily life on board ship is vividly brought to life with details of routine, the cramped conditions, the banter and pastimes used to pass the time by the troops, and the by contrast luxurious existence of the officers. The second, Erk in the Desert gives a detailed account of the activities of Unit 606, a radar crew that follows just behind the battlefield. 606 provides radio-detection for the advanced landing grounds being used by RAF fighter-bomber squadrons, because these landing strips, in turn, are the target of the German Luftwaffe and the Italian Air Force attacks. 606 was a tiny unit, never more than 10 men, often operating for protracted periods in complete isolation. Fred s account vividly and lyrically evokes the landscape and the often tense and dangerous environment they operated in, pitching the reader into the experience of travelling with the unit in a 3-ton lorry, finding ingenious solutions to lack of rations...
