Reviews

The book is great and fantastic. It is written in straightforward words and phrases rather than difficult to understand. You won't really feel monotony at any time of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for regarding should you question me).

Lisa Flaum, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This suspense-filled children s novel takes you deep into the mysterious and marvellous world of The Cats of the Riverlands. Living along a river, they are both wild and domestic, noble and ignoble. The Golden Statue is about a shy, teased cat called Tikana, who is thrown into an adventure in which she has to make choices that are both petrifying and life-changing. One dark night changes this heroine forever; a night in which villains, heroes and secrets are revealed. Can she embrace the truth of her past without facing the pain of her present? There is the possibility that she might indeed be someone of noble birth, but who determines what makes a cat noble? Is it determined by birthright or by the way they engage the world? And then there is the Prince. Sometimes love can change the course of history and undo ancient incantations, breaking traditions and fear. But can their love survive the idolatry surrounding the golden statues? If you are cat-obsessed and you always knew they had secret lives, then you will love this book. Drawing you in page by page, it s packed full of adventure and journeys to the heart. The Cats of the Riverlands will be enjoyed by 9-12 year old readers.
