Plon, France, 2005. Couverture souple. Condition: Neuf. « Ce livre est un témoignage de l'engagement envers l'Amérique latine que j'ai pris à Paris, il y aura bientôt un demi-siècle, et auquel je reste fidèle. À sa façon, ce dictionnaire est un mélange pluriel qui aborde tous les sujets imaginables : la révolution, la photographie, certains travers du langage populaire, le cinéma, les dictatures, le paysage, les écrivains, l'histoire, l'humour, le football, les voyages, la peinture, et ils comprennent une grande variété de genres, du reportage journalistique à l'article de fond, de l'évocation au compte rendu, de la note nécrologique à la chronique, voire à la fiction. Enfin, ce livre est aussi comme l'envers d'une autobiographie.»
