We have no doubt it would be welcomely received. Our Exchanges, The Little Wolverine.--We have received a number of this new-comer into the ranks of juvenile literature, and bail it with the heartiest wishes for its success; not only because its editress, Mrs. C. M. Sheldon, has long been a valued friend of the Casket, but because the Little Wolverine is an excellent thing in itself. The Michigan children will feel proud of it, we are sure, and the readers of.the Casket, in other parts, would be both benefitted and pleased by its perusal. Published monthly, at Detroit, Mich., by Mrs. C. M. Sheldon, at 30 cents a year. The...
