Factual and punchy, providing a realistic account of the challenges many Successful women face when seeking a partner or husband. The first part of the book is an introduction and insight into my own background and how I became a professional matchmaker. After twelve years of successful matching, I know finding dates or attracting the opposite sex is rarely the problem for women, its finding men who are genuine and ready for commitment. DATES are easy to come by, but marriage and commitment minded men, are not! I cover many areas without the usual dating industry sales gloss. I give a step by step guide on how to attract the right men if youre over 30 and want a serious relationship. The book goes through the various options available should you be thinking about engaging an agency or matchmaker. Full of facts the dating industry may not like, plus advice and research on introduction agencies, matchmakers, online dating, to why you probably still find yourself single. Many women who have not been married by 38 still tend to select partners...
