Music is a successful singer, songwriter and record producer who is well educated, single and a black woman with a lifestyle that some women are willing to sell their souls for. Her biggest challenge in life is never making it to the main Girlfriend headline. For the past six years Music has been linked to some of the biggest names in entertainment, both music and sports figures and splashed in every tabloid as unofficially dating A list players in the NFL. She has a weakness for linebackers. Life comes to a screeching halt when she is finds out her long time fling Ryan has kicked her to the curb and becomes engaged to recording artist Jade, her used to be BFF and industry colleague. Creating an outlet for her frustration, Music expresses herself through The Girl Friend Starter, a blog she anonymously publishes for women who never make it to official girl friend status and believe they will never land the men of their dreams. Believing a single loveless destiny is her fate, Music finds out life has a new twist and is introduced to Jaylen who has every intention of making Musics dreams come true and turning her in to the woman she longs to be, and fears she will never become. Musics fear of disappointment, heartbreak and rejection causes her to shut Jaylen out leaving him to victim to his ego and causing him to seek his own sweet revenge. While trying to face her own personal challenges and demons with men, sex and love, Music finds herself leading a double life as an anonymous relationship coach whos blog and advice become a major hit...
