SeductionIn order to better portray the international problem of runaway, abducted and enslaved children, Seduction , exploits the classic struggle between good and evil by tearing back the curtain to unveil what lurks behind the beautiful and seemingly serene middle class suburb of Springfield U.S.A. Mary, (a rebellious guitar playing teenager), has decided to run away from the dysfunctional and abusive home her desperate Mother created. Joe, (a decidedly unscrupulous character with a conscience), covets dreams of becoming an extraordinarily powerful talent agent while his good friend Eugene Grant holds grand aspirations of being the world s most famous movie star. Pledging the fulfillment of these desires, The Devil , separately and without awareness of each other s involvement seduces the two friends into signing blood contracts and becoming his disciples. Mary has since sunk into the depths of homelessness and is barely managing to squeeze out a survival by performing her songs on The Strip for handouts from tourist.
