Balboa Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Cathy was born and raised in the Pacific Northwest. She believes that her deep love of ritual, and art as spiritual inspiration, is influenced by being raised Catholic. Cathy comes from a lineage of knowing women. When someone was ill or in trouble, Cathy's mother and aunts would always call to find out what was wrong. This ability was simply explained as the women's thing. This way of being has always been part of Cathy's life, and made trying to get away with anything as a child almost impossible. Although her family has been Cathy's most important job, being a mentor for families and children have always been part of her life. Cathy has been a childbirth educator, La Leche League Leader and a doula. As her children grew Cathy then became a Waldorf School kindergarten teacher, helping to start two schools in the Pacific Northwest. Cathy and her husband served as regional teen camp directors, then as national camp program director, for the United Church of Religious Science (Centers for Spiritual Living). After a spiritual awakening in 1988 that women's thing became newly tuned. She became clearly focused on her connection to Spirit, and that we can all experience connectedness to Source, right now and whatever the circumstances. Cathy continually expands her understanding of what it means to live in the Presence of Good. It has led her to study of many forms of healing and intuitive arts, into mystery schools, and now she simply lives the mystery. Cathy is an artist, teacher and mentor and lives her life to full every day. She serves as a Religious...
