For various reasons we have found during seen Kingdom walk, that, as a saint of the Most High God, we reach many levels and dimensions. Levels and dimensions are plateaus on this Kingdom journey where we have (a) choice. We can choose to go to the right or left, backward or forward. Most times as this is a point of elevation supposedly, we misinterpret the position and don t do anything. We just stand paralyzed, we stand still and not in a Godly sense, most times we do so out of fear. Because our Kingdom walk is ultimately about salvation. Everything that we say and do in this life form destination. Everlasting life is our eternal destination. Why, PUSH - the acronym PUSH was developed on the west coast. Somewhere between Greater Bethany Community Church, West Angeles Church of God in Christ and Apostolic Faith Home Assembly during a drastic movement and concentration on prayer. It was during the water troubling period of the shut-in, all night prayer, noon-day prayer, prayer line (telephone), prayer breakfast era. We in the church realm of that region felt the pull (or) push to give birth to a very prolific movement called PUSH. We made buttons, cups, shirts, and held meetings centered around this movement. The Lord blessed us to move to Mississippi in 1991. I had been blessed to be one of the spear headers of the movement and became a National Prayer Warrior in the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World. I asked if I could bring the movement to Mississippi. We were blessed to bring it than and we still feel strongly about it...
