Everybody Dreams

By Michael Stratton

BookSurge Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 480 pages. Dimensions: 8.1in. x 5.3in. x 1.3in. Everybody Dreams, by Michael Stratton, follows marital therapist, Emma Davis, whose dreams have become nightmares. Struggling to understand their meaning, and appreciating the irony of having become the wounded healer, she begins a Dream Group with select clients, all of whom suffer troubling dreamscapes of their own. Together, Emma hopes they can all decipher the lies and symbolism of sleep to discover the truth that lies behind the fantasia, and so transform their collective chimeras into the answers they all seek. Stratton's Everybody Dreams explores a mysterious and unknown world within us all. Told through masterful prose, author Stratton weaves a complex world populated by fascinating characters, yet in it all manages to find the humanity, compassion, and spirit that unites everyone who struggles with life's vicissitudes. This is a book that will entertain everyone who loves a well-told story, be it in the real world or the world of dreams. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
