Bold and brazen, Rumor Harlowe Martinelli is the epitome of success - hailing as Atlanta, Georgia s most illustrious and tenacious broadcast journalist - she appears to have it all together. Until one day, her perfect world is swept away by the winds of tragedy - her mother falls ill and leaves Rumor behind to face a heartbreaking family secret. Torn and alone, Rumor takes a sabbatical from her career and retreats to Manhattan, New York in the hopes of getting lost amongst the cacophony of the city. Dapper and debonair, Holden Gad Vauclain is Versailles, France s most prominent pediatric surgeon. He appears to have it all together, but inside he is dying as he copes with the recent loss of his son and his wife. Although his strong religious beliefs provide immense strength, it is not enough as he flees to Manhattan, New York attempting to bury himself in his photography. They were looking for an escape but found one another. Holden revitalizes Rumor s life with new hopes and promises of better tomorrows, but Rumor finds it hard to...
