

More Than Angels: Once Upon a Dream (Paperback)

By Ruby Moon-Houldson

E-Booktime, LLC, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Nightmares plague Thia once again and her latest case takes her back to her hometown. Colin travels with her and decides that it might be good for her to stay in the house where she grew up. Professionally ignoring her personal past, and the nightmares that threaten to overtake her, Thia responds to a local resident who writes a letter to her at the FBI office telling how the town of Wenten is being overrun by drug dealers who are terrorizing, victimizing, and stalking the citizens. There is sufficient details and background given that Thia feels she cannot ignore the letter, especially when accusations are made that the town's police are involved. A citizen of Wenten is now a witness for the court, and in having this new title he is taking full advantage of being protected by the law; assaulting anybody who gets in his way. But the town is tired of the fallout from such an alliance and call upon Thia to help them get back their city. Thia interviews town residents, quickly finding evidence to support the claims...
