Five days after FBI Special Agents Sean Murphy and Charley Faraday identified the suspect responsible for the deaths of five little girls and the kidnapping of the sixth victim, someone tortured and murdered George William Kirk in the parking lot of a Washington DC strip club. His first case as a detective, Reginald Moynihan enlists the help of Murphy and Charley. Several days later, another murder with similarities occurs. Before another person dies, Murphy and Charley chase a vicious killer across the country from Washington DC, to Casper, Wyoming, to St. Louis, Missouri, and back east to Covington, Georgia to aid police agencies to apprehend a vicious killer who leaves behind brutalized victims. Is he a serial killer or does he have a list and why? Charley, Murphy, and Detective Reginald Moynihan of the DC Metro Police spare nothing to solve and find this heinous criminal. His mode of murder with each victim variable, but his identification is clear. A trophy left behind for each victim, along with what he takes from them is more disturbing.
