iUniverse, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Written for people who are sick of thinking about what's in their brains and need a whole new set of ideas and thoughts to overwrite what's already there, Living My Life By the Book contains more than 2,500 jokes and one-liners that will fill readers' minds with the thoughts of others that they can't put down, to keep their minds off their own for a while. A book of books that will give you a storied life to think about and not the one you don't like the inevitable ending you see coming for yourself. Willidau has chosen a library full of books to represent his life, so he doesn't have to think about his own storied one. Ken Willidau's philosophy is that anything could have happened so why not just pretend that anything did. Willidau reads into himself all the fiction that would make any non-fiction story blush to make his own reality seem like a happily ever after tale come true. You will be more gripped by this book than the one you'll be white-knuckling as your own plot thickens. Chapters read like books that make a life out of stories that will make it one long sentence to live to the letter. Among them, -My Friend Flicka-, -Of Mice and Men-, -Go Ask Alice-, -Great Expectations-, -I, Robot-, -Old Yeller-, -Far From the Madding Crowd- and -Tales From the Crypt- make a life that's stranger than fiction but better than non-fiction when anything different is better than the same old read on it, now. The day is penned by an author of jokes using volumes of wit, novel jokes, eye-in-book humour,...
