Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In an article by Henri J.M. Nouwen, a Catholic priest, he describes his impressions after he saw Christ on a Donkey: -As Christ with a long slender face with a high forehead, inward-looking eyes, long hair and a small forked beard that expresses the mystery of his suffering in a way that holds me spellbound. He appeared to be concentrated on something else. There is melancholy, but also peaceful acceptance. There is insight into the fickleness of the human heart but also immense compassion. There is a deep awareness of the unspeakable pain to be suffered but also strong determination to do God s will. Above all there is love, an endless, deep, far reaching love from an unbreakable intimacy with God and reaching out to all people, wherever they are or will be. There is nothing that he does not fully know. There is nobody whom he does not fully love. Every time I look at this Christ on the Donkey, I am reminded again that I am seen by him with all my sins, guilt, and shame and loved with all his forgiveness, mercy and compassion.- The profound thoughts of Fr. Nouwen encapsulate the message of -A Touch of Heaven - Journey of Faith.- His words, -I am seen by him with all my sins, guilt, and shame and loved with all his forgiveness, mercy and compassion, - are repeated, again and again in the pages of this book. It is such grace that every time I sit down to write, the angels of the Lord seem hovered about me, waiting eagerly to feed my subconscious with the words God has intended, guiding my fingers to fashion them...
