I ought, perhaps, so far, to be thankful to them for their wholesome lessons of humility. I have therefore entered into this long detail to endeavour to remove, at the first possible opportunity, any unfavourable impressions; to rescue myself from the dangers which the continuance of these suspicions might occasion, anil to preserve to me your Majesty s good opinion, in whose kindness hitherto I have found infinite consolation, and to whose justice, under all circumstances, I can confidently appeal. Under the impression of these sentiments, I throw myself at your Majesty s feet. I know that whatever sentiments of resentment, whatever wish for redress,...
