Those who had no money gave wheat or barley; one man gave five knives, worth perhaps eleven cents here; perhaps I shall send them to America for sale. They want to send part of their money to Central Africa and part to Micronesia. May the Lord follow with his blessing their giving and their prayers! Central JCurket UHiwion. THE REVIVAL AT ADANA. Writing March 29, Mr. Mead gives further reports of the religious awakening at Adana. The interest in the meetings here, which are about to come to a close, reached its culmination last Sunday. On the previous day one of our brethren had been attacked in the market and beaten by ruffians of the Gregorian Church. The beating was not a very serious affair, but the whole city was pretty thoroughly awakened by it. Consequently the church was crowded more than usual on the following day. The afternoon congregation was the largest I ever saw assembled in the Adana church--not far from 1,300 being present. When the church gets filled up so that they seem, as they sit on the floor, to be packed like sardines, the people are asked to rise and come forward to make more room, and thus a space is opened at the rear end of the church for later comers. Sitting on the floor has its advantages, when there is need of every available inch of room. A great...
