Empire Publishing, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Surfing/Real Life Based Drama Book of the Year. Life has its up s and down s; similar to the ocean, it has mostly calm days, but without any warning, an unexpected storm can roll in and destroy everything in its path. A Surfer s nature is to rise to the challenge and head directly into the storm to conquer its brutality. However, there comes a time when the storm pins the person underwater and has to fight for survival. Life can be symbolically compared to surfing as told in this story. Steven is not average by any means and is exceedingly passionate about all aspects of life. At a young age, he grabbed a handful of E-tickets, jumped in the front seat and sped forward as his life became a thrilling roller coaster ride that never stops. He has seen the world through many eyes. First as an entrepreneur who was instrumental in changing the course of the music industry in the early 1980 s. His daring ideas paved the way for a new era of music as the original manager/co-creator of the iconic band Slayer. Years later, he became a world-renowned artist, and a champion in fiberglass warfare. Steven is interviewed for a film documentary about his historic involvement in the music industry. He is asked, If you can attribute one thing that makes you who you are and what has led you into achieving things that most could not even dream about or are too scared to attempt, what would it be? Unexpectedly, he replies, Surfing. When the economy crashes in 2010, he, like so many others, quickly loses everything that he worked all his life to obtain and rapidly loses...
