Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .State s Attorney Steven Peterson falls in love with a woman named Joy who is on a murderous rampage to get revenge. He finds himself making the biggest decision of his life to have her. Joy is a lion-heart with the mind of a genius. An advanced mind goes crazy when trapped in an 8x12 cell. Being between cement and iron bars give the mind too much time to think and plot about the return to society to get her revenge. Anger and evilness comes out when rage runs rapid in one s brain, and nothing can tame the wild beast inside of her. The car was already started. Joy put the car in reverse and backed out of the alley as two bullets flew through the windshield. She whipped the car out of the alley. A bullet flew through the driver side window and entered her jaw. The sight of her bloody son motivated her past the pain and she sped off. She never drove so fast, or dodged through traffic so swiftly before she ran the car into the entrance of Maryland General Hospital. She pulled Alonzo out of the car and carried him into the emergency room. Her mouth was so numb from the bullet that she could not tell the receptionist what was wrong. She just laid Alonzo s bloody body on top of the receptionist s counter. Everybody scrambled fast and got Alonzo some medical attention. She was so worried about her son that she did not care about the bullet in her jaw. Joy had fire in her eyes and a trail of destruction behind her and Steven could not let her go to jail, when she...
