Mae Elizabeth Publications, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Hope for Codependents. is written by the desperate, heartbroken wife of a man determined to destroy himself through alcohol. After pleading, begging, crying and threatening for years she turned to a group of people who understood because they had been down the same road and found the answer through praying and sharing. She writes of her struggle and heartache and how by crawling out of the darkness of ignorance and fear she found peace and healing. In this book she shares her life, her poetry, and Psalms that she clung to for comfort and peace. It is her sincere desire that her book will bring comfort, hope and recovery to others.
