Excerpt: . . . 9 for decision making and allocation of resources; and to provide for the measurement of the environmental and economic effects of invasive species treatments. An additional strategy for protecting forest health involves USDAs work to broad-en the use of markets for ecosystem services through voluntary market mechanisms as announced by Secretary Johanns at the White House Conference on Cooperative Conservation. As part of this effort, Forest Service Research and Development will continue its work regarding the quantification of ecosystem services values. INCREASED COLLABORATIVE EFFORTS The White House Conference on Cooperative Conservation, held in August 2005, marked an important milestone in the effort to expand and improve collaboration in natural resource management. The White House Conference underscored a clear lesson learned from the Forest Service Centennial - that the Forest Service has en-tered a new, more collaborative era of natural resource management. Today we are focusing on improving forest health and promoting sustainable recreation. In order to work effectively in this new environment, the future of...

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
