When Ashley sees a late night info-mercial about an eco-tourism trip to Costa Rica, she begs her sister Carrie to accompany her. What Ashley does not know is that not only does Carrie know the man for whom the business is named, Nate Turner Tours , the whole idea of the tour was hers in the first place! When the two sisters arrive at Nate s compound, Ashley can tell that that he is the Nate Carrie used to talk about and who inadvertently stole all the credit and notoriety for one of her discoveries. Nate tries numerous times to apologize and reconcile with her. But after their painful breakup over three years ago, Carrie feels that she can never trust him again and continually thwarts his efforts to make amends. He realizes that the only way Carrie will ever give him a second chance is if he entices her with a job opportunity and the chance to do more field study, which will help her regain her standing in the scientific community. However, after the last group of tourists leave, which includes Ashley, and when they are finally left alone, Carrie finds it harder and harder to resist him. Unknown to them one night, the Mayan Love Goddess Xochiquetzal is summoned to step in and help the two young people finish what they began years ago in college. Interference by the Goddess never tasted so good, as they are handed an ancient love potion served up in a large papaya. After just one sip, Xochi s powers take over and both Carrie and Nate s resolve crumbles completely, turning them into lustful jungle animals of the night! What direction will their...
